

Launch of

DOMESTIC WATCH in WOODROCK

with Penny Steyn ("MAD Penny")

Domestic Watch is not a "course" that begins & ends.

It is an ongoing process of monthly lessons teaching crime prevention and keeping abreast of current trends in criminal activity and methods of self-protection and home protection.

When: THURSDAY 25th May 2017
(thereafter every last Thurs of each month)

Where: iMVULA Training office – 22 Packard Str.

Time: 12.15p.m. to 1.30p.m.

Cost: R50 per session – payable by employers.

Why: *Domestic Workers take care of our homes and our children and are fully part of our community.

*Domestic workers are the Eyes & Ears of the neighbourhood.

*Domestic workers will be trained in SAFETY & SECURITY issues which will help them both at work and in their own homes.

More Info: info@woodrock.co.za & 083.700.2401
or madpenny@absamail.co.za

LESSONS OPEN TO ALL DOMESTIC WORKERS (household and gardening staff) and EMPLOYERS are invited to attend as well.

Join this structure that is in place throughout the remainder of Sandton, working towards a better South Africa for all.
