

DOMESTIC WATCH - INTRODUCTORY LETTER FROM PENNY STEYN to all Woodrockers

(May 2017)

Hi All

Courtesy of Wendy Robertson and WKRRRA organisation, Imvula's wonderful new offices and certainly the great support from 24/7 Security MAD (Making A Difference)
Domestic Watch is being launched in May.

All Lessons will be held at Imvula Skills Centre, 22 Packard Street, Woodmead on Last Thursday of EVERY MONTH (except December)
@ 12h30 and in November those that attend regularly (5 Lessons) will receive a certificate of attendance at the exciting yearend event.

Month	Day	Date	Time	Venue
May	Thursday	25	12h30	22 Packard Street, Woodmead

May Lesson: Our first lesson will be marginally longer than the usual one hour.

There is a great deal of material that will be covered to open this lesson and prepare all for future lessons during the balance of the year.

I will be covering "Imperative Information for All Households" to be kept in the house for any emergency, "Know Your Neighbour" comes with some actual stories of how the neighbour saved the day for me when I was strangled and my best friend who finally died from the boiling water thrown on her by the criminals. DON'T MISS this lesson.

The intention is to have a major paradigm shift in all who attend with a view to them becoming an integral part of the crime challenge.

They are and always will be treated royally and with love and care.

ALL EMPLOYERS are welcomed, I have had many say "Gee I learned so much from you Penny".

There is no room left in South Africa to KNOW NO BETTER!

When attendees have been taught what to do, what not to do they can, they will and have in many suburbs been (MAD) Making A Difference! Lessons are packed with stories good and bad to enhance the different topics each month.

Some say 'Crime has been radically reduced'!

Thank you to those that receive this email for forwarding it to your friends and neighbours and community wherever possible.

We ARE building a MAD ARMY! Making A Difference.

Large numbers of attendees who attend monthly lessons without doubt become motivated and knowledgeable and will be MAD Making A Difference!

Sincerely

Pens

- ❖ Wendy Robertson is the co-coordinator and Penny Steyn is the writer and presenter of all crime prevention lessons and requests R50.00 per attendee for Penny's contribution to crime prevention in your suburb. Receipts are given by means of a "PAID" stamp
- ❖ Domestic Watch is not a "course" that begins and ends. It is an ongoing process of lessons teaching crime prevention and keeping abreast of current trends in criminal activity and methods of self and household protection against criminals. With 68 written lessons each receives a written copy and no lesson is repeated in a period of at least 2 years or more.
- ❖ Employers, Domestics and Gardeners are all welcomed.
- ❖ The Police will attend whenever possible to add valuable information & build a trust relationship with the attendees.
- ❖ Refreshments are served whenever possible and contributions are sincerely welcomed.
- ❖ The meeting starts promptly at 12h30. Registration 12h15. Lesson duration 1 hour.
 - ❖ T-shirts and Aprons available with MAD logo – R60 each.

- ❖ Sincere thank you to Invula Skills Centre for the use of their delightful venue monthly and 24/7 for supporting these lessons and both organisations together with WKRRRA for assisting in driving this to get optimal crime reduction benefit for the community in Woodmead and Khyber Rock.
- ❖ Crime will be reduced if large numbers of domestics and gardeners attend to be trained to prevent crime, pass on information without putting their lives in danger and motivated to become an integral part of the crime challenge.
